The camp provided an opportunity to the people in the locality as well as the staff and students in various institutions to appreciate the artistic creations by the participants of the camp. The camp was a grand success because of the enthusiastic performances by the artists who not only portrayed and exhibited their artistic calibre for the delight of the onlookers but also took part actively in the cultural events that followed which proved to be the highlight of the camp. The cultural events included the concert by the famous Malayalam Ghazal singer Shri Umbai, who took the audience and music lovers to a state of trance with his mesmerizing and melodious strains.
